Synopsis & Setting

From Andrew Lloyd Webber, who brought you beloved classics such as Joseph and the Amazing Technicolored Dreamcoat, Evita, Phantom of the Opera, and so many more!

Jesus Christ Superstar is not meant to be a religious or theological piece, but rather an interpretation of the final week of the life of Jesus of Nazareth, through the doubtful eyes of Judas Iscariot. The show explores themes of love, betrayal and sacrifice, while reimagining biblical events through modern musical expression.

The show emphasizes the humanity of its characters, portraying Jesus as a man grappling with his fate and expectations set upon his life, and the inner turmoil of Judas Iscariot who struggles with his feelings of right vs. wrong.

A Word from the Director

I'll keep it short and sweet. Producing this show has been a lifelong dream come true, and I couldn't have asked for a better group of people to do it with.

Thank you to my amazing cast, made up of friends old and new, who have taken my scrambled thoughts and ideas and turned them into an incredible piece of art. You are all wonderful and I hope fate will allow me to work with you all again, whether it's as a director or on stage with you.

Thank you to Maggie, for sharing my musical taste and vision, and for joining me in leadership on what has become one of the greatest experiences of my life.

Thank you to Tina, for your dance coaching skills, creativity, resourcefulness, and most of all your positivity. It's impossible to have a bad time with you around.

Thank you to Maddy, for stepping into the fray with me when I needed you most. The organization you've brought to this production is something I never knew I needed before, and will never be able to do without again.

Thank you to my beautiful wife Laura, for your endurance; your patience; your sacrifice; your love. Once this is all over, you can have me back! I just pray that that's a good thing.

Blessed beyond what I deserve,

Chad VanderMei

A keffiyeh is a headdress typically made of cotton and traditionally worn by men in parts of the Middle East. The black-and-white checkered keffiyeh, which represents the Palestinian liberation movement, has been chosen as a costume piece not only for its historical accuracy, but also to show our support for the innocent people impacted by the Palestine-Israeli conflict.

Aaron Smith
Ensemble

Aaron Smith is thrilled to be making his first ever stage appearance. After spending many years proudly watching his wife Kara and daughter Morgan perform in a variety of shows at both TRCP and Center Stage Theatre in Kalamazoo, he has finally decided to take to the stage himself to see things from the other side of the curtain. With Jesus Christ Superstar having long been one of Aaron's favorite shows, he's excited to have it be his first foray into theater.

When he's not watching his family members on stage, Aaron can be found playing a variety of video and board games, sampling the offerings of local breweries, and volunteering with the Free Mom Hugs Organization across the state.

Aaron would like to thank the entire cast and crew for their warm welcome and helpful encouragement, as well as the directing staff for providing him with this amazing opportunity.

Aster Smith
Ensemble

Aster Smith began her theatre journey as a Bird Girl in the Kalamazoo Civic's 2017 production of Seussical Jr. Beyond acting, she is also passionate about writing music and stories. In recognition of her dedication, she was awarded the President's Volunteer Service Award in 2023 for her contributions at the Kalamazoo Civic. Aster further honed her craft at Joffrey's Theatre NYC Intensive in 2017, working alongside Broadway professionals and earning a scholarship for her talent and hard work. Aster wants to thank the entire crew for their dedication and work.

Danelle Sturdy Ensemble

Dani Sturdy is a longtime member of the TRCP family, having appeared in countless productions over the years. Her most recent role was as one of the six Southern sisters in Bellès, where she once again showcased her versatility and passion for the stage.

When she's not performing, Dani is a dedicated teacher, balancing her busy schedule between her classroom and the theatre. No matter how hectic life gets, she always finds her way back to her love for acting and her TRCP community.

August Gallagher Caiaphas / Fight Captain

August grew up in the theatre acting in various plays and musicals including Hair (Berger), The Importance of Being Earnest (Lane), and Hairspray (Edna). He studied Theatre at Columbia College Chicago with a minor in Stage Combat. After a hiatus he moved to Michigan where he has been in such shows as Xanadu (Sonny), the Hunchback of Notre Dame (Phoebus), and Goodnight, Tyler (Drew). Most recently he directed Oliver! He is happy to make his TRCP debut with Jesus Christ Superstar.

Disco Metheany Dance Captain Judas Understudy

Disco is thrilled to be returning for their fourth show here in Three Rivers, having just finished directing TRCP's enormously successful youth staging of Junie B. Jones the Musical Jr. Disco has appeared in over 20 productions, with favorite recent roles including Elle Woods in Legally Blonde and William Morris Barfée in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. Outside of theatre, Disco works as a Community Living Support Specialist, helping disabled individuals work toward independence goals. When not on stage, Disco can be found playing with their mischievous kitten, Oppo, reading philosophy anthologies, binging Dropout.tv, or convincing friends to try out yet another board game. Disco would like to thank the dedicated team members behind this show, their friends and family for always supporting their passions, and most importantly, their beautiful fiancée, D, for their endless care and love through the chaos.

Disco would like to dedicate their performance to the resilient people of Palestine. May their dreams of justice, freedom, and peace be realized, from the river to the sea.

Eathan Bingaman King Herod

Eathan is THRILLED to be playing King Herod in this breathtaking show. He has been in over 50+ shows all over the Midwest area. A graduate from WMU with a degree in Musical Theatre Performance, he has been directing shows for TRCP and the Mendon Drama program for a while.

You may remember him as Baker, Chip Tolentino, or Lord Farquaad from some of our recent productions. JCS will be Eathan's 32nd show with TRCP since he started with us in 3rd grade.

When he's not at rehearsal, Eathan is a substitute teacher, currently in a long-term substitute position in Constantine.

He also doesn't have a uvula.

Eathan would like to thank his friends and family for always having his back, helping out with everything, and telling him to rest when he should. He would work himself into the ground if it wasn't for them. Also, to all of you for supporting arts in our community - thank you! (edited)

Emily Burns
Ensemble

Emily Burns is new to theatre. She was previously in Oliver! as the Strawberry Seller and is very excited to be part of the ensemble for Jesus Christ Superstar. This is her first performance with TRCP.

Even though she is new to this, theater has quickly become her passion and she has her son Basil to thank for pushing her to give it a try!

Jacob Huff
Jesus of Nazareth

Jacob Huff didn't submit a bio, so I get to write whatever I'd like...

Jacob is a veteran performer with the TRCP, with some of the recent roles under his belt including Curly in Okla!homa! and Pinocchio in Shrek the Musical. He is also the After-School Director for Three Rivers Area Mentoring (TRAM).

When not on the stage, you can find him clubbing it up in Club Penguin, shopping for Funyuns at full price, and eating his favorite desserts: fruit!

Jonathan Talmadge
Pontius Pilate

Jonathan Talmadge (Pilate) is the Artistic Director of Opening Act Theatre Company, which has provided performing arts education in Van Buren County since 2012. He has written or co-written 17 original musicals, the most recent of which, "Play All Year", had its World Premiere in August. Jonathan has a B.A. in Acting from California State University, Fullerton, where he met his beloved wife, Angela, who is his business partner as well as life partner. Jonathan played Peter in "Jesus Christ Superstar" way back in 1994, and is enjoying revisiting this great show. Favorite roles include Harold Hill in "The Music Man", Cervantes/Quixote in "Man of La Mancha", and Johnny Cantone in "1940's Radio Hour". He is thrilled to act in the same production with his amazing son Jacob. Jonathan, Angela, Jacob, and their friend, Aubrey Rowekamp have an Americana band called Hootenanny Poets. Like so many middle-aged men, Jonathan likes to drink craft beer and read books about history.

Jacob Talmadge
Ensemble
Simon Understudy

Jacob Talmadge, a recent high school graduate, has been acting and singing for as long as he can remember. His passion for the stage has led him to numerous productions, with his most recent role in The Addams Family. Jacob is especially excited to be making his debut with TRCP and performing alongside his dad in this production, making it a truly special experience.

Outside of theatre, Jacob is a member of the family band Hootenanny Poets, where he makes music with his mom, Angela, his dad, Jonathan, and their friend Aubrey

Kara Smith
Ensemble
Annas Understudy

Kara Smith is happy to be performing in her first show with TRCP in her long time favorite musical. She was most recently seen this summer in Oliver (Widow Corney) at Center Stage Theatre Kalamazoo. She is glad to be making a return to theater after many years away especially when she can share the stage with her family. In her free time, Kara serves as a board member and volunteer for Public Media Network in Kalamazoo as well as a board spotligher for CST. Big thanks to Aaron for joining the cast at the last minute and to Morgan for being the best rehearsal pal.

Kate Louise
Judas Iscariot

Kate has been enamored with musical theatre since she first saw The Phantom of the Opera at the age of twelve. Since then, she has been in many shows including Kiss Me, Kate as Bianca/Lois Lane, Okla!homa as Ado Annie, and Into the Woods as The Witch. She is thrilled to be taking on the role of Judas in this production of Jesus Christ Superstar, her first with TRCP.

In her free time, Kate enjoys playing video games and hanging out with her menagerie of animals at her little homestead.

She would like to thank her husband Misael for his incredible love and support. Let's rattle the stars my love.

Lana Braden Ensemble

Lana (Allison) Braden is thrilled to be dancing in TRCP's Jesus Christ Superstar. She previously performed in TRCP's Into the Woods (Florinda) and Great Escape Stage Company's Miracle on 34th Street (ensemble), and worked on sound and visual effects for Avenue Q.

Outside of theater, Lana enjoys yoga, painting, attending EDM festivals, and visiting Disney and Universal through friends' perks. She speaks several languages, has lived abroad for seven years, and loves studying film, particularly horror and bizarre genres.

She is grateful to our wonderful director Chad VanderMei for reaching out about the opportunity, as well as all her amazing cast members who have been very supportive. Special thanks to her mother, Joyce, for driving her to rehearsal and being her biggest supporter. They both are certain her late father, Daniel, is a part of the audience every time she graces the stage.

Laura VanderMei Annas Mary Understudy

Practically raised in the TRCP, Laura first took the stage in Beauty and the Beast Jr. back in 2012. Since then, she's had some memorable moments on stage; you may recognize her from dancing her way through Hairspray as Tracy, charming audiences as Ado Annie in OklaHoma, and going green (literally) as Fiona in Shrek the Musical!

When Laura isn't gracing the stage, you may also see her name floating around as a set designer, hair and makeup person, or even director!

Although art is where she really thrives. In her free time, you'll likely find her drawing and bingeing a good sitcom like The Office or Parks and Rec. Fun fact, during that free time, Laura designed the logo for this very production of JCS! Her strengths at creating pen-to-paper masterpieces come alive when she takes on graphic designs using softwares on her iPad, and making every vision a beautiful reality.

Morgan Smith
Peter

Morgan is thrilled to return to TRCP, having previously appeared in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. She's especially excited to be part of Jesus Christ Superstar, one of her all-time favorite shows.

With a deep love for musical theatre, Morgan brings her passion and energy to every role she takes on. When she's not performing, she enjoys spending time with family and friends, finding new creative outlets, and continuing to pursue her love of the arts. Morgan is grateful to be back on the TRCP stage and can't wait to share this experience with the cast and audience!

McKenna Burlingham
Mary Magdalene

McKenna is so excited to be making her TRCP debut in Jesus Christ Superstar as Mary Magdalene! McKenna has a wide range in shows on her theatre resume, including Ida in Honk! the Musical at Homeschool Performing Arts, and most recently Esmeralda in The Hunchback of Notre Dame at the Kalamazoo Civic Theatre. When she is not on stage performing, she loves being a sound mixer in shows like Rock of Ages, Billy Elliot, and Big Fish. You can also find her painting, drawing, and creating beadwork using cultural traditions! She gives credit to the Kalamazoo Civic Theatre for truly being the source of growth as an artist and even more so would like to thank her family for always coming to every show and her most amazing boyfriend Drew, for always being there for her and helping with making sure she is always prepared for a production. She would like to thank the whole company for being super stellar and welcoming her to TRCP with open arms! Let's break legs everybody!

Paul Snyder
Ensemble

Paul Snyder's love for musicals sparked his journey into theater after reading about auditions in a local paper, leading to a flood of performances ever since. His credits include Father of the Bride, Fiddler on the Roof, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, The Mousetrap, and dinner theatre shows like Death by Chocolate and The Odd Couple.

Outside of theater, Paul enjoys kayaking when the mood strikes, watching sports, and the occasional skiing adventure. For him, theater is a way to make friends and bring out his more extroverted side.

River Jackson
Simon
Jesus Understudy

River Jackson is no stranger to the stage, having performed with TRCP and Mendon's Drama Club. Most recently, they appeared in TRCP's Be More Chill and as Little Red in Into the Woods. River is excited to take on the challenge of playing Simon and stepping in as the understudy for Jesus, bringing their passion for storytelling to every performance.

When not on stage, River enjoys spending time with friends and supporting their musical endeavors, always staying connected to the arts. They are grateful for the support of their fellow cast members and the opportunity to continue growing as a performer with this incredible production.

Sandy Tarnowski
Ensemble

Sandy Tarnowski (Ensemble) is so excited to be a part of her first ever TRCP show: Jesus Christ Superstar!

She is an avid fan of all things

Andrew Lloyd Webber - The Phantom of the Opera being the show that brought her the love of theatre!

Previous show credits include The Hunchback of Notre Dame (Choir), 9 to 5 (Roz Keith), and Mary Poppins (Ms. Andrews).

When not on stage, Sandy loves to sew historical clothing, hang out with her two cats: Pierogi and Mysz, and watch German musicals.

Sandy would like to thank the directing team, the cast, and crew for all their hard work to make this show happen. She would specially like to thank McKenna Burlingham, Drew Dixon, and Gena Belew for their constant and unwavering support.

Sophie Niec-Clapp
Ensemble

Sophie Niec-Clapp is delighted to be in her first TRCP show,

Jesus Christ Superstar!

Growing up, theatre had always been one of her greatest loves. After a long hiatus she has recently returned to the theatre community, where she feels the most happy. Some of her favorite roles in the past have been Ms. Strict in Zombie Prom, Marion Paroo in The Music Man, Bird Girl in Suessical, and a tap dancing egg in Something Rotten! In her free time Sophie enjoys crocheting, leatherwork, and stained glass art. She would like to thank the cast and crew of JCS for being so welcoming and friendly, and her husband Jake and mom Bonnie for encouraging her to get back into theatre.

Spencer Taylor
Ensemble

Spencer Taylor is thrilled to be part of Jesus Christ Superstar. Spencer is no stranger to the stage, having previously brought the energetic Cotton-Eyed Joe to life in Ethan Bingaman's 9 PM Saturday Night, portrayed the lovable and determined Dewey in Legally Blonde, and taken on the role of Detective Sergeant Trotter in Agatha Christie's The Mousetrap. He is immensely grateful to Chad VanderMei for the opportunity and exceptional direction throughout this creative journey. Spencer also extends his deepest thanks to his son, Dorian Taylor, whose unwavering support and inspiration have driven him to pursue his passion for the arts.
